

Build Team's Dan Davidson is selected as a Finalist in the Great British Entrepreneur Awards

London, 13th October 2014 – Clapham-based Build Team is celebrating after it was announced that its Managing Director, Dan Davidson has been selected as a finalist in the Urban category of the Great British Entrepreneur Awards.

The Great British Entrepreneur Awards, taking place on 19 November at Old Billingsgate in Central London, have become the recognised standard of excellence amongst entrepreneurs. Since their launch in 2013, the Awards have marked a new era for entrepreneurship in the UK and this year's event is set to acknowledge and celebrate the contribution and inspiration provided by entrepreneurial businesses.

Founded in 2007, Build Team specialise in Side Return Extensions, creating additional living space for homeowners across London. With an online price calculator which provides an accurate quote in 60 seconds, Build Team are continuing to expand and invest in their fully integrated design & build service offering.

Commenting on his nomination, "I'm delighted to be nominated for such a prestigious award. We have worked really hard at Build Team to create a fully integrated approach for homeowners wishing to design & build a Side Return Extension, and from day one we have believed in the need to present costs in a straightforward and transparent manner via our unique online price calculator. To receive recognition for the company and our innovative approach is fantastic; I couldn't be happier."

Simon Burton, founder of the Great British Entrepreneur Awards, said: “The entries we have received for the Great British Entrepreneur Awards can only be described as awe inspiring. The quality has been outstanding. The judges have had the extremely difficult task of whittling the great and good of the entrepreneurial community down to the very best and we are delighted by the entrepreneurs that have made the finals.”

Nick James, Founder of Fresh Business Thinking - the Great British Entrepreneur Awards Media Partner says “The Great British Entrepreneur Awards will be the annual celebration of seasoned and aspiring entrepreneurs and the support network they need to survive and thrive. UK PLC needs entrepreneurs like never before, people that can innovate, lead and inspire and the Great British Entrepreneur Awards will put them centre stage.”

The Awards Ceremony itself in November will be a night to remember, with VIPs from the worlds of business and entrepreneurship gathering to celebrate entrepreneurial spirit in the UK.
